Tutoring Experience

Over the past 16 years, I have worked with students across South Korea and internationally, focusing on A-Level Business Studies and IB Business Management. I have guided learners in mastering case studies, marketing strategies, and financial analysis, ensuring their success in exams and coursework.

In addition to teaching A-Level and IB curricula, I have extensive experience in IGCSE Business, helping students develop a strong foundation in business principles. My students have gone on to pursue prestigious degrees in business and related fields at leading universities worldwide.

I've also collaborated with international schools and institutions to develop engaging business studies modules tailored to various academic needs. This has allowed me to refine my expertise and ensure that my students receive the best preparation for their academic and professional journeys.
